Q1. Complete the following passage by using one word only.

The role of (a)………………………….. citizens becomes extremely important (b) …………………………….. a democracy. They (c)………………………….. to be aware of their rights and know what they should expect (d)………………………….. their elected representatives. The citizens should (e)………………………….. aware of the problems of their region as well as of the whole country. Only then (f)………………………….. they understand whether the government is taking the right steps for their welfare or not.

Q2. Look and the words and the phrases given below and rearrange them to form meaningful sentences. First one has been done as an example.

a) a thousand/of bats/there/about/kinds/are
   There are about a thousand kinds of bats

b) population/nearly one quarter/they account for/of the world’s

   ........................................................................
   ................................................................................

c) continent/they are found/except Antarctica/in every

   ...........................................................................................................................

   ...............................................................................................................................

d) that can fly/they are/the only/mammals

   ...............................................................................................................................

Q3. The following passage has not been edited. There is one error in each line. Underline the incorrect word and write the correct word in the space provided.

Some people has a peculiar habit of getting up from the bed in night, changing clothes and go out for a walk and while doing all this things they still remains in the state of sleep. They are not conscious in what they do in that state. To know why this happens, we must understand which sleep is. A ‘Sleep Centre’ in our brain controls activities like sleeping and walking.

Q4. In the following passage one word has been omitted in each line. Write the missing word in the space provided along with the words which come before and after it.

A reporter was interviewing a witness about an accident. She him if he had seen the accident taking. If he could tell her what he seen. The witness replied that had seen a car coming at a very speed and hitting the scooter. The reporter asked him the scooterist Was driving his lane? The witness said that he was not fault.

Q5. Read the conversation given below and complete the paragraph that follows.

Shopkeeper: What can I do for you?
Mohan: I want to purchase sugar.
Shopkeeper: Do you have money?
Mohan: No, I have the credit card.

At the shop, the shopkeeper asked Mohan (a). Mohan replied (b). At this the shopkeeper asked (c). Mohan replied in negative and told that he had the credit card.
Q6. Read the instructions given below to cook rice and complete the paragraph by filling in the blanks.

- Wash the rice in clean water and let it soak for half an hour.
- Put it in a pot half filled with water.
- Place it on the fire.
- Leave it for some time.
- When all the water is gone, take it off the fire.

To cook rice, at first, the rice is washed in clean water. Then it is soaked for half an hour. It (a) .................................................. in a pot half filled with water. It is placed on the fire and (b) ............................................. to boil. When all the water is gone (c)..............................................................the fire.